What We Provide

A fully equipped temporary kitchen pod delivered directly to the driveway, ready within 24–72 hours.

- Full oven & hob
- Fridge-freezer
- Dishwasher
- Washing machine
- Sink with hot & cold water
- Worktop space & storage
- Ventilation & lighting
- Safe, weatherproof, lockable unit

Our solution keeps policyholders in their home while reinstatement works take place — significantly reducing claim costs and improving customer satisfaction. Ideal for long-term escape-of-water claims, drying periods, flood damage, fire damage and major kitchen repairs.

Why Insurers Use Us

1. Significant Cost Savings

Hotels and serviced accommodation can cost £700–£1,200 per week. Kitchen Rescue pods are typically £499/week.

2. Reduced Additional Living Expenses

No need to cover takeaways, eating out or laundrette trips.

3. Better Policyholder Experience

Families stay at home, maintain routines and avoid disruption.

4. Suitable for Long-Term Repairs

Flood drying and reinstatement often take weeks — we cover the whole period.

5. Fast Deployment

24–72 hour delivery depending on location.

6. Zero Hassle

We manage delivery, setup, installation and removal. Completely turnkey.

Who We Work With

Kitchen Rescue supports loss adjusters, insurance repair contractors, insurers, brokers, councils and housing associations. If your client is without a kitchen, we can help.

How It Works

- Step 1 – Assessment: You provide the address and expected repair duration.
- Step 2 – Delivery: We deliver and install the pod on the driveway.
- Step 3 – Use: The policyholder lives normally with cooking, washing & cleaning facilities.
- Step 4 – Collection: We remove the pod once reinstatement is complete.
